

PROMONTORIO

Helena Lourenço
Director Interior Design

Born in Oporto (1972), holds a BA Hons in Design from Chelsea College, University of the Arts London (1995) and was an Erasmus intern at Facultad de Bellas Artes, in Barcelona (1994). Helena started as a trainee at Tricoire Studio, in Paris, in 1995, moving to Lisbon the following year to join Viterbo Interior Design consultancy (1996-1998). She also collaborated with Paris-Sete (1998-2000) before starting to work at PROMONTORIO, in 2000, where she is currently the Director of Interior Design. Since then, Helena has focused on key areas of this practice, namely working closely on leading hospitality projects for operators such as Four Seasons, Marriott Starwood and Hilton, ensuring the development of each project from concept to completion, including design specifications and construction supervision in locations worldwide.
