

PRO MON TORIO

MULTIPLE DIMENSIONS
LISBON, PORTUGAL
1994

Major multimedia exhibition with site-specific rooms
for some of the world's leading video-artists

Within the programme of Lisbon'94, European Capital of Culture, the project consisted in the design-and-build of a major exhibition of video-art and multimedia involving the creation site-specific rooms (in most cases in direct collaboration with the artists) inside the main exhibition hall of the Belem Cultural Centre. Artists included Judith Barry, Dan Graham, Gary Hill, Tatsuo Miyajima, Bruce Nauman and the Portuguese João Paulo Feliciano.

Location: Lisbon, Portugal
Client: Lisbon European Capital of Culture 1994
Programme: Video-art and multimedia exhibition
Gross floor area: 1,000 sq. m
Project status: 1993 (concept design) – 1994 (built and open to public)